Your business is important to us. How can Burns & Wilcox become a strategic business partner? What do you look for most in order of importance?

Does your agency specialize in a particular class or classes? Do you have any program business?

Have you or any partner of your firm:

Had a complaint filed against you by the Department of Insurance or other government agency?

Filed bankruptcy?

Had an E&O claim charged against you?

Had an agency contract terminated?

If so, please explain:

Our goal in doing business with a client is to establish a long term, profitable relationship. To accomplish this, each Burns & Wilcox branch requires a meaningful premium commitment that will help us to sustain a mutually beneficial relationship.

What premium volume are you willing to commit to Burns & Wilcox over the next 12 months? $

What are your service expectations?

How did you hear about us?

Are you willing to accept your policies electronically? Marketing Emails?
